

Gender pay gap report

We worked with one of our associate education experts, Nick Bulmer, to create a template report for gender pay gap data.

Exclusive to The Key for School Leaders. Save time, work smarter, make a difference.

The Key for School Leaders is the national information service that gives members instant answers to questions on all aspects of managing a school. We offer high-quality, impartial information from authoritative sources, and a wealth of practical resources, including template forms, case studies, and concise summaries of government policies and legislation.

Optional supporting narrative

As an Educational trust, our personnel comprise of both teaching and support staff. Teaching colleagues are paid within our specified pay range and are incremented equally, based on performance, with no gender bias. For non-teaching colleagues pay scales set by the National Joint Council are used. All job roles are evaluated to ensure fair pay for the role and are advertised with no gender bias. All members of support staff working in the same titled role are paid within the same grade range, regardless of their gender.

Nick Bulmer is an HR advisor with HC Associates, and supports schools and academies with their HR issues. He regularly advises school clients, helping them through difficult or sensitive employment situations.
