With a combined population of around 200,000, Gosport and Fareham offer the convenience of easy access to large city resources with the semi-rural ethos of a less hectic lifestyle. Set right on the coast, Gosport and Fareham offer wonderful natural resources, with water-based activities, stunning nature reserves and countryside. Excellent rail, ferry and road links offer exciting travel access to the rest of the South Coast, London and the UK, as well as the Continent.

Shielded by the chalk hills of the South Downs National Park, Gosport and Fareham enjoy some of the mildest weather conditions in the UK, combined with access to some of the most incredible leisure opportunities.

With eleven secondary schools and sixteen primary schools within the immediate area, as well as specialist provision, Gosport and Fareham offer many diverse opportunities for training and employment within the state-funded education sector. At Gosport and Fareham Multi-Academy Trust, we offer a 'quality first' approach to education and consider ourselves very privileged to live and work in an area offering so much diversity of opportunity. We would love you to join us.
